W.P.No.10336 of 2005

ORAL ORDER:

This writ petition is filed seeking a Mandamus declaring the action of the respondents 1 and 2 in not providing police protection to enforce legal rights of the petitioner as arbitrary, illegal and unconstitutional and consequently direct the respondents 1 and 2 to extend police protection to enable the petitioner to cultivate his land.

It appears, petitioner is the owner and possessor of land in Survey No.8/2 to an extent of Ac.5-24 cents situated at Vanadurgapuram village, Palasamudram mandal, Chittoor district. When the unofficial respondents tried to interfere with his possession over the said land, he laid a suit bearing O.S.No.49 of 1992 on the file of the Senior Civil Judge, Puttur for permanent injunction and the same was decreed. Questioning the same, the unofficial respondents carried the matter in appeal being A.S.No.85 of 1998 on the file of the Additional District Judge, Tirupati and the same was dismissed. Thus, the lis between the parties attained finality. Nonetheless, according to the petitioner, when the unofficial respondents tried to dispossess him by using muscle power, petitioner filed complaint before the second respondent seeking police protection to enforce his legal rights to enable him to cultivate the land peacefully.

This Court, while admitting the writ petition on 28.4.2005, directed the respondents to dispose of the complaint dated 5.4.2005 submitted by the petitioner. According to the petitioner, the said complaint has not been disposed of by the respondents 1 and 2.

In view of the above, without expressing any opinion on merits, the respondents 1 and 2 are directed to dispose of the representation/complaint purported to have been made by the petitioner on 5.4.2005 within a period of (8) weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, if not already disposed of and consider for providing police protection to the petitioner, as per law. It is also open to the petitioner to file a fresh application in this regard, if necessary.

The writ petition is accordingly disposed of. No order as to costs.
